

College Employer Council Appoints New Chief Executive Officer

The College Employer Council is pleased to announce the appointment of Graham Lloyd as Chief Executive Officer. Graham will begin his new role on August 1, 2019 and will replace Don Sinclair our founding CEO who is retiring.

Graham was previously with the Dairy Farmers of Ontario holding several senior leadership roles including most recently their CEO. As a bilingual business leader and lawyer, he brings a significant skillset in advocacy, strategic planning, governance, communications, managing complex negotiations and issues while regularly working with stakeholders, government and the media.

The College Employer Council is the bargaining agent for the 24 Ontario Colleges in negotiating collective agreements with unionized staff and the contract policy holder for group insurance benefits. In addition, the Council provides a variety of human resource related services for the college system and is located in Toronto.
